

Premier League Photographic Licence Agreement.

All photographs taken at Premier League matches are subject to this agreement. No photograph or composite may be altered in any way save for normal retouching i.e. spotting. This states that any reproduction is prohibited unless permission, in writing, has been obtained from the Premier League, or the Member Club employing the player(s), or any employee of the Club featured in the photograph, save for:

- 1) An ordinary edition of any newspaper or any supplement included in the paper save for supplements on larger paper, glossy paper or sold separately that is not based solely on any Club and/or players and/or any fixture any Club has or will play.
- 2) A magazine or periodical produced at regular intervals and not devoted solely to any Club and/or players and/or any fixture any Club has or will play.
- 3) A book that is not based solely on the Premier League and any Club and/or players and/or any fixture any Club has or will play.
- 4) Wraprounds and inserts for any competitions contained in or attached to any publication as set out in (1).
- 5) Advertising promotional and marketing materials and point of sale materials for any items set out in (1) and (4) of above, in each case in printed paper format only.
- 6) An Internet site that is an equivalent version of any of the above (1) to (5) which have been published, and which include the said photograph.
